RCOM launches text service in regional languages

MUMBAI: Reliance Communications, India's leading telecom service provider has announced today the launch of "Samachar" service on Reliance Mobile Phones. The service provides text news in Hindi, Bengali, Gujarati, Kannada, Malayalam, Marathi, Punjabi, Tamil and Telugu. The service benefits millions of subscribers of Reliance Mobile across the nation as they can know the latest news in their preferred languages at the touch of a button. The service is powered by Webdunia.com, the pioneer in Indian languages in mobile and web applications.
