RCOM slashes local and STD rates for new pre-paid plans

■ NEW DELHI: Anil Dhirubhai Ambani-led Reliance Communications on Wednesday announced new pre-paid mobile service plans for its customers wherein local and STD calls for one minute duration would cost 50 paise and one rupee respectively. This offer is available at a one time recharge of Rs 550 and for lifetime, the company said in a statement. Called 'Lifetime Jaadu Pack', this scheme is available to both new and existing subscribers with lifetime validity. The same tariff plans would also be available for the post-paid customers with a one-time monthly subscription of Rs 49, it added. The company said before this, lifetime validity subscribers were required to buy packs and special tariff vouchers every month.
