Reliance GSM offers free STD scheme

New Delhi: ADA Group firm Reliance Communications launched a new scheme under its GSM offering, which allows the user to make 50 minutes of STD calling free. Under the offer, for an e-recharge of Rs 35, the GSM user will get Rs 50 worth of STD calling time free across all networks and will be valid over 30 days. "We have received tremendous response for our GSM service. We will continue to explore opportunities to provide our customers best in class services," Reliance Communications Regional Head (Uttar Pradesh and Uttarakhand) Saleem Haq said.
